Professional
you have experience skills and expertise in all aspects of your role which enables you to produce exceptional results

Leadership
you lead individuals and teams demonstrating relational leadership skills that emphasise shared values and positive behaviours

Self Awareness
you are aware of your emotions and behaviours and understand how they affect your thinking and actions and how this impacts on others

Strategic Insight
you demonstrate the skills to understand and respond to the complexity of the strategic and political environment

Personal
you are clear about what you hope to achieve and look for stretch and challenge within and beyond your current role

Organisational
you are aligned with the goals of your organisation and are motivated to contribute beyond the normal requirements of your role

Personal
you are clear about your personal beliefs and values and how they support your decisions, behaviours and actions

Shared
your values align well with our shared values and are visible in the way you deliver your goals